Wells Fargo and NGLCC Award $5,000 Grant to the Atlanta Gay and Lesbian Chamber of Commerce

August 3, 2017

Atlanta, GA - The National Gay & Lesbian Chamber of Commerce (NGLCC), the business voice of the LGBT community, awarded the Atlanta Gay and Lesbian Chamber of Commerce with a $5,000 Chamber Development Grant for its LGBT Business Summit at the 2017 International Business & Leadership Conference in Las Vegas, Nevada.

Funded by the Wells Fargo Foundation and administered by the NGLCC, this grant is awarded to support and provide increased visibility to the LGBT Business Summit. The main goal of the program is to foster the development, growth, and sustainability of NGLCC's 1,000 certified LGBT Business Enterprises® (LGBTBEs®).

"The NGLCC is excited to see the Atlanta Gay and Lesbian Chamber of Commerce grow as an organization and a voice in the LGBT owned and allied businesses community," said Sam McClure, NGLCC Senior Vice President. They have shown tremendous growth in the size of their business membership and outreach programs, embodying the mission that NGLCC has continuously strived for."

"Wells Fargo is a proud, long-time supporter of NGLCC, and we share their commitment to helping small business owners succeed financially," said Lisa Stevens, Wells Fargo head of Small Business. "We are dedicated to providing funding that will support their entrepreneurship and leadership training programs, along with educational tools and resources to help diverse-owned business in communities across America grow and thrive."

"The LGBT Business Summit has become a vital resource to our members as they develop their businesses and engage in strategic planning," said Dan Dunlop, President of the Atlanta Chamber. "The program furthers our mission of supporting our members through business growth, education, and advocacy. We are thrilled to receive this generous grant from Wells Fargo and NGLCC which will allow us to expand and enrich our program."
